Report on Observation Visit

Venue: Walayar Valley Lions FSW Suraksha Project, Palakkad

Date: July 31, 2025

The Department of Social Work, Mercy College, Palakkad organized educational observation visit to Lions FSW Suraksha Project, Palakkad on 31st July 2025 as part of the academic curriculum to expose students to real-time social work practices and intervention models in various institutional settings. Ms. Deepa N., Project Coordinator, conducted a detailed orientation session on the overall functioning of the project. She elaborated on the administrative structure, operational framework, and the roles and responsibilities of various staff members. The session also provided an overview of the beneficiaries served by the project, which include vulnerable individuals and communities in the Walayar Valley region.

Ms. Deepa further explained the range of services offered by the agency, including welfare schemes, health and social support initiatives, and awareness programs aimed at improving the quality of life of the beneficiaries. She highlighted the importance of community participation, inter-agency collaboration, and sustainable practices in achieving long-term developmental goals. The interaction allowed students to link theoretical concepts learned in the classroom with the practical realities of project implementation and community outreach. It also offered valuable insights into the challenges faced by welfare agencies and the strategies adopted to overcome them. The visit concluded with a note of appreciation to the Lions FSW Suraksha team for their hospitality and willingness to share their knowledge and experiences. The program was a valuable learning opportunity, reinforcing the significance of field-based exposure in social work education. The program coordinated by Ms. Sruthimol K., faculty coordinator, Ms. Sriya C P and Ms. Malavika R Warriar, student coordinators.
