Report on Observation Visits Venue: People's Service Society Palakkad Date: July 30, 2025

The Department of Social Work, Mercy College, Palakkad organized an observation visit to People's Service Society Palakkad (PSSP) on 30th July 2025. The visit was part of the academic curriculum to provide students with first-hand exposure to the functioning of non-governmental organizations and to understand their role in social development.

On arrival, the students were warmly welcomed by Rev. Fr. Ceejo Karikkatil, Executive Secretary of PSSP. He conducted an orientation session in which he explained the history and establishment of the institution, its governing body, and the overall vision and mission guiding its activities. He highlighted the philosophy of PSSP, which is rooted in promoting social justice, equity, and holistic community development. Father elaborated on the various services and projects undertaken by PSSP across different sectors. These include programs in health care, education, women and child welfare, community development, environmental sustainability, livelihood promotion, and skill training. He also explained how the society collaborates with government departments, funding agencies, and local communities to ensure the effective implementation of its initiatives.

Students were able to understand how projects are planned, executed, monitored, and evaluated. Fr. Ceejo emphasized the role of social work professionals in bridging the gap between the community and developmental resources. The visit was coordinated by Ms. Aswathy S, faculty member of the department, along with Ms. Amrutha K and Ms. Sunitha A, first-year MSW students.
