As part of the Kerala Piravi celebrations, the Department of Languages, Mercy College, Palakkad, organized a vibrant cultural program on 3rd November 2025 to celebrate the spirit, heritage, and artistic traditions of Kerala. The event showcased the students' creativity and enthusiasm through a variety of performances that reflected the cultural richness of the state. The program began with an invocation song that beautifully captured the essence of Kerala's natural beauty and harmony. This was followed by a series of performances including dance, music, and cosplay, all inspired by Kerala's history, literature, and traditions. One of the highlights of the program was the dance adaptation of the renowned Malayalam poem Poothappattu, which captivated the audience with its expressive choreography and emotional depth. The performance vividly portrayed the poetic imagination and mystical atmosphere of Edasseri Govindan Nair's classic work, blending literature and dance in a powerful artistic expression. Another major attraction was a semi-classical dance based on the theme of Kerala, depicting the cultural identity, unity, and beauty of the land through graceful movements and traditional rhythms. Students also presented a cosplay performance showcasing famous personalities and cultural icons of Kerala, adding an educational and entertaining element to the event. The entire program reflected the students' deep appreciation for Kerala's art, literature, and linguistic legacy. It provided them with a platform to express their artistic talents while instilling a sense of pride and belonging to their culture. The Kerala Piravi celebrations thus became a memorable occasion, blending creativity, tradition, and youthful enthusiasm in a fitting tribute to the birth of Kerala.

Objectives of the Program

To celebrate Kerala Piravi by highlighting the significance of Kerala's linguistic and cultural heritage. To promote Academic dialogue on the role of language in shaping thought, creativity and cultural consciousness.
