The Department of History, Mercy College, Palakkad, organized an inspiring Independence Day celebration titled “Jaagrithi” on 14 August 2025. The programme was designed to honour the nation’s freedom struggle and nurture patriotic spirit among students.

The celebration began with the soulful rendition of “Vande Mataram,” which set a patriotic tone for the day. This was followed by the Independence Day message delivered by the Principal, highlighting the sacrifices of freedom fighters and encouraging students to contribute meaningfully to the progress of the nation.

A variety of cultural activities marked the event. The Azaadiya group song filled the venue with pride and enthusiasm, while the Unsung Bharath Quiz celebrated the contributions of lesser-known heroes of the independence movement. A graceful group dance, “Mukti,” depicted the struggles and triumphs of India’s freedom journey. The skit “Vamaayanam,” presented by students, powerfully depicted the continued challenges and struggles faced by women even in an independent nation, urging the audience to work towards true equality.

The celebrations continued with an energetic Patriova performance by the Sports students, which enthralled the audience with its vigour and patriotic spirit. The programme concluded with a spirited display by the NCC Cadets, whose synchronised movements and vibrant slogans reflected discipline and national pride.
