The Department of History and Political Science, Mercy College, Palakkad, organized an engaging quiz competition on the topic “Human Rights and the Indian Constitution” on Friday, 12 December. The programme was designed to enhance students’ constitutional awareness, promote understanding of fundamental rights and duties, and encourage critical engagement with issues related to human rights in contemporary India.

The quiz was conducted by Ms. Nandini, Secretariat Assistant and an esteemed alumna of Mercy College, Palakkad, who served as the Quiz Master. Drawing on her academic background and professional experience, she framed thought-provoking questions covering constitutional provisions, landmark amendments, fundamental rights, directive principles, and human rights issues. Her clear moderation and interactive approach ensured an intellectually stimulating and well-structured competition.

Students from various institutions participated enthusiastically, demonstrating strong subject knowledge and team spirit. The team from Govt. Victoria College, Palakkad secured the first position, while teams from Mercy College, Palakkad won the second and third positions. The competitive yet cordial atmosphere fostered healthy academic interaction among the participants.

The quiz competition proved to be a meaningful academic exercise that deepened students’ understanding of the Indian Constitution and human rights. It also encouraged analytical thinking, teamwork, and respect for constitutional values, thereby fulfilling the department’s objective of promoting civic consciousness and legal awareness among students.
