Report on Freshers' Party – "XAVIVOX"

The Department of Economics and Sociology organized a Freshers' Party titled "XAVIVOX" on 8 August at 12:30 p.m. in the College Auditorium. The programme was conducted to warmly welcome the first-year students and to help them feel comfortable and connected with the department.

The event was organized and coordinated by the senior students with the support and guidance of the faculty members. The programme began with a brief welcome address, after which various cultural performances such as music, dance, and fun interactive games were conducted. These activities created a lively atmosphere and encouraged the freshers to actively participate and showcase their talents.

Several entertaining sessions and interactive activities helped the new students to interact with their seniors and teachers, fostering a sense of belonging and unity within the department. The programme also provided an opportunity for students to relax, build friendships, and become familiar with the departmental environment.

Overall, XAVIVOX was a vibrant and memorable event that successfully welcomed the freshers and strengthened the bond among the students of the Department of Economics and Sociology.
