Report on Financial Literacy Program – “Introduction to Financial Planning”

The Department of Economics and Sociology, Mercy College, Palakkad, in association with the National Stock Exchange (NSE), organized a Level 1 Financial Literacy Program titled “PRATHAM – Introduction to Financial Planning” on 17th September 2025 at 1:30 PM in the EV Seminar Hall. The session aimed to enhance students’ understanding of the basics of financial planning, emphasizing the importance of informed financial decision-making for a secure future.

The resource person for the session was Mr. Venugopal Rayirath, a Certified Finance Professional from the National Stock Exchange. He gave a detailed presentation on the concepts of budgeting, saving, investment options, and the significance of early financial planning in personal and professional life. He also highlighted the role of the NSE in promoting financial literacy among youth.

The session was highly interactive, with students actively participating in discussions and clarifying their doubts regarding investment avenues such as mutual funds, stock markets, and retirement planning. The program successfully instilled financial awareness among students and encouraged them to develop disciplined financial habits. The event concluded with a vote of thanks to the resource person and all participants.
