REPORT ON MEDICAL CODING ORIENTATION SESSION

DATE: 19.01.2026
TIME: 12.30 – 1.30

VENUE: MAIN SEMINAR HALL

The Department of Economics and Sociology, Mercy College, Palakkad, organized a Medical Coding Orientation Session in association with Anton's Medicode for the benefit of III Year B.A. Economics students. The programme was conducted on Monday, 19 January 2026, from 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Main Seminar Hall.

The orientation session aimed to create awareness among students about medical coding as a career opportunity in the healthcare sector. The resource persons from Anton's Medicode provided an overview of medical coding, its importance in hospitals and insurance companies, and the growing demand for certified medical coders in India and abroad. During the session, students were introduced to the structure of medical coding courses, certification process, and the scope of employment in areas such as hospital coding, physician coding, insurance companies, and healthcare BPOs. The speakers also highlighted the advantages of professional training, expert guidance, and placement assistance offered through the programme.

The session was interactive and informative. Students actively participated by raising questions related to course duration, eligibility, certification exams, and placement prospects. The orientation helped students understand how medical coding can serve as a promising career option alongside their academic qualifications.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, and the students expressed positive feedback, stating that the session was highly useful in broadening their career perspectives. Overall, the orientation session was successful and informative, motivating students to explore opportunities in the healthcare industry.
