Report on the Cultural Programmes in Connection with the 77th Republic Day Celebrations

The Department of Economics and Sociology, Mercy College Palakkad, in collaboration with the National Cadet Corps (NCC), 27 (K) Battalion NCC, organized Cultural Programmes as part of the 77th Republic Day Celebrations on 23 January at the College Auditorium from 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM.

The programme was graced by Lt. Col. K. Madhu, Administrative Officer, 27 (K) BN NCC Palakkad, and Subedar Major Somanath, 27 (K) BN NCC Palakkad, as the Chief Guests. Their presence added prestige and inspiration to the celebration.

The programme began with a warm welcome to the chief guests, faculty members, NCC cadets, and students. In their address, the chief guests emphasized the importance of patriotism, discipline, national unity, and the role of youth in strengthening the nation. Their motivating words encouraged students and cadets to actively participate in nation-building and to uphold the values of the Republic.

The cultural segment of the programme featured a variety of performances by students and NCC cadets. These performances reflected the diversity of Indian culture, patriotic spirit, and the ideals of unity and togetherness associated with Republic Day celebrations. The performances created an atmosphere of enthusiasm and pride among the audience.

The event successfully brought together students and faculty in celebrating the values of democracy, unity, and national service. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks expressing gratitude to the chief guests, organizers, participants, and everyone who contributed to making the event a memorable one.

Outcome of the Programme

- Promoted patriotic values and national pride among students.
- Strengthened the spirit of unity and cooperation among NCC cadets and students.
- Provided a platform for students to express their talents through cultural performances.

- Inspired students through the valuable guidance and experiences shared by the chief guests.

The programme was a meaningful celebration that highlighted the spirit of togetherness and respect for the nation's democratic values.
