REPORT ON FAREWELL PARTY – MEMORANZA 2K26

Venue: Mini Seminar hall

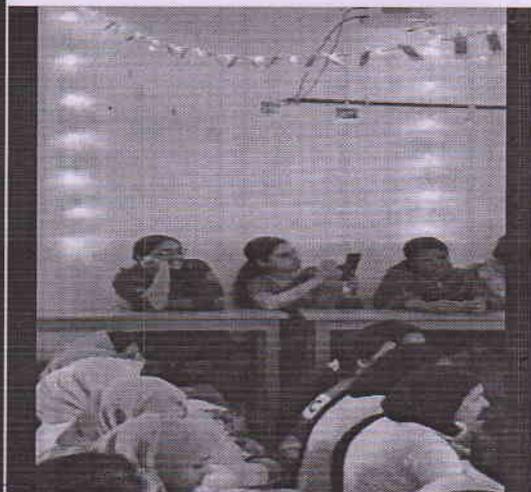

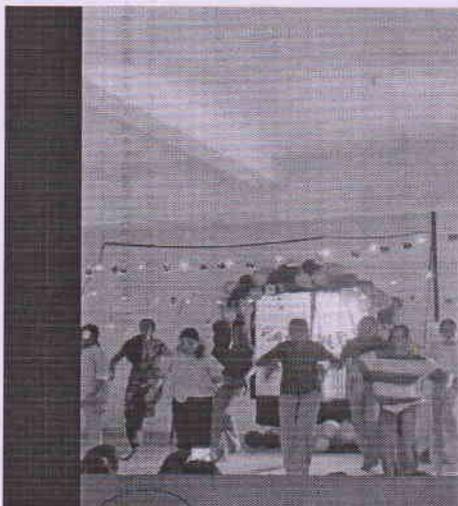

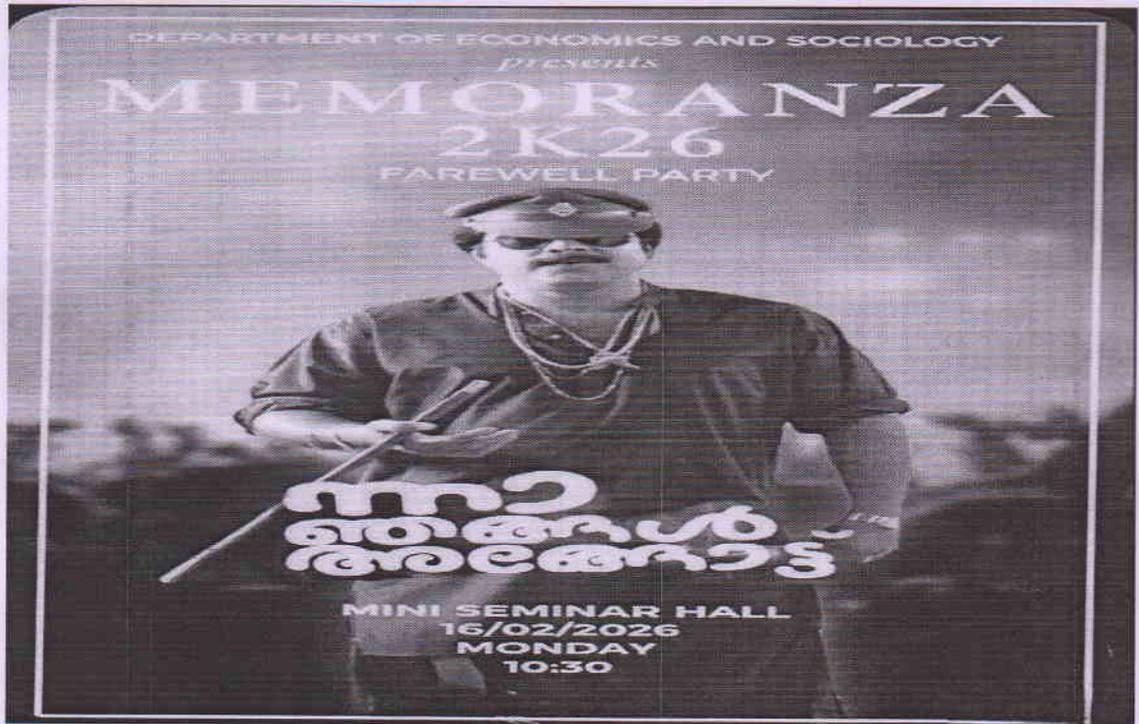

Date: 16 February 2026

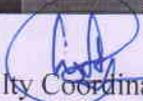

The Department of Economics and Sociology organized a farewell party titled “Memoranza 2K26” for the final year students on 16 February 2026 (Monday) at 10:30 AM in the Mini Seminar Hall. The programme was arranged to bid a warm and memorable farewell to the outgoing final year students and to celebrate the time they spent in the department. The event began with a warm welcome by the organizing team, who expressed gratitude to the final year students for their contributions and active participation in academic and co-curricular activities throughout their course. Faculty members and students gathered together to make the occasion special and memorable for the outgoing batch.

Various cultural programmes were organized by the junior students, including dance performances, songs, games, and fun activities. These performances added colour and excitement to the event and created a joyful atmosphere in the hall. Several students also shared their memories and experiences from their college life, expressing gratitude to their teachers and friends for the support and guidance they received during their academic journey. Teachers addressed the gathering and conveyed their best wishes to the graduating students for their future careers and personal lives. They encouraged the students to move forward with confidence, uphold the values they learned in college, and make meaningful contributions to society.

The farewell celebration concluded with heartfelt moments, group photographs, and informal interactions among students and teachers. The programme successfully strengthened the bond between students and faculty and left the final year students with cherished memories of their time in the department. Overall, Memoranza 2K26 was a vibrant and emotional event that beautifully marked the farewell of the final year students.
