Community Living – 'EZHIL 2025'
Programme: Community Living Camp

Venue: Koduvayur

Date: December 26-30, 2025

The Department of Social Work, as an integral component of the MSW curriculum, successfully organized a five-day Community Living Camp in collaboration with Ellora Foundation, Koduvayur at Koduvayur gram panchayat. The camp was conducted from December 26th, 2025, to December 30th, 2025, with the primary objective of inculcating social responsibility, leadership qualities, teamwork, and professional competence among the participating students.

The Community Living Camp Ezhil 2025 was formally inaugurated on 26th December 2025 by Mr. K. M. Febin, District Panchayat Member, Koduvayur Division. The inaugural session provided an overview of the camp objectives and activities, helping community people to understand the purpose and significance of community living.

A free medical camp was organized at A.L.P School in collaboration with PIMS Hospital, Ahalia Hospital, and Dr. Rootz Hospital. A street play and flash mob were performed at Pittupeedika Junction to create awareness about the harmful effects of drug abuse. A community cultural programme and campfire were organized to encourage interaction, cultural exchange, and bonding between trainees and community members. The students conducted a community survey focusing on health, education, waste management, and other social issues. Arranged some sessions related with personalities development, stress management, leadership skills and group dynamics, women's health, participatory rural appraisal, theatre workshop etc. The community living camp coordinated by Ms. Sruthimol K, faculty, Ms. Anjaly P X and Ms. Amrutha K, student coordinators.

The camp played a significant role in inculcating positive values and attitudes among students. A strong sense of social responsibility and commitment to service was developed through direct involvement in community welfare activities. Interaction with community members fostered empathy, compassion, and respect for human dignity.
