Session on 'Schemes & Policies for Women'

Venue: Seminar Hall II

Date: January 9, 2026

Time: 2.50 pm

The Department of Social Work organized a session on 'Women: Schemes and Policies'. Ms. Suna S Chandran, a gender specialist, Sankalp Hub for Empowerment of Women, District Women and Child Development Office, Palakkad, led the session, focusing on policies and schemes provided by the Indian government and Kerala government for women's empowerment. Ms. Suna discussed various schemes and policies, including, Pradhan Mantri Ujjwala Yojana: providing LPG connections to women, Kaithangu project, Mangalya project, Rakshadooth, Pradhan Mantri Matru Vandana Yojana, Janani Suraksha Yojana, Ashwasanidhi, Sahayahastham, Penma project, etc. The majority of the projects discussed were tailored to address the diverse needs and challenges faced by women.

The session covered the benefits, implementation strategies, and impact of these schemes. Ms. Suna addressed queries, shared best practices for effective implementation. The interactive session encouraged participants to discuss ways to leverage these initiatives for community development. Attendees appreciated the comprehensive overview. The programme was thoughtfully and systematically coordinated by Ms Shreya M. The session concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging Ms. Suna's expertise and the department's efforts. The Department of Social Work plans to conduct more sessions on social welfare policies. Participants gained knowledge on government schemes for women's empowerment, enabling community development contributions.
