'Theatre Workshop'

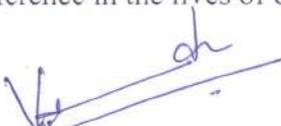

Venue: Koduvayur

Date: December 26-30, 2025

A comprehensive theatre workshop was conducted by the department of Social Work, Mercy College Palakkad in collaboration with Ellora Foundation, Koduvayur on 29th December 2025. Mr. Aswin R. M, esteemed Acting Trainer and Theatre Artist, led the workshop with the objective of augmenting the participants' creative expression, communication skills, confidence, and teamwork. The highly interactive and activity-based session witnessed active participation from the trainees, who engaged in a range of theatre exercises, role plays, and improvisational activities.

These activities were meticulously designed to facilitate the trainees' overcoming of stage fear, enhancement of public speaking skills, and development of a nuanced understanding of group coordination. The workshop provided a supportive and encouraging environment, empowering participants to express themselves openly and creatively. The interactive nature of the session enabled the participants to explore their creative potential, build confidence, and develop a deeper understanding of the importance of teamwork. The workshop was deemed highly successful, with participants deriving immense benefit from Mr. Aswin R. M's expertise and guidance. The program coordinated by Ms. Aswathy S, faculty, Ms. Gopika U and Ms. Vrinda Das, student coordinators.

The outcomes of this workshop are expected to be reflected in the student's enhanced ability to engage with diverse communities, communicate effectively, and demonstrate confidence in their chosen profession. The Department is confident that the skills and experiences gained from this workshop will have a lasting impact on the trainees, enabling them to make a positive difference in the lives of others.
