Mercy Celluloid – Documentary Screening

The Mercy Celluloid, in association with the PG and Research Department of English, hosted a double documentary screening of "The Last Stand" directed by Peter von Puttkamer and "The Queen of Trees" directed by Mark Deeble and Victoria Stone on July 23, 2025. The event explored themes of conservation, resilience, and natural harmony, highlighting the ecological importance of trees and forest ecosystems.

The screening provided a valuable opportunity for attendees to engage with environmental issues and appreciate nature's significance. It sparked meaningful discussions and reflections on our role in preserving the natural world.
