Bridge Course Beyond the Textbook: The Art of Communication

Objectives

- To orient first-year FYUG students to the importance of communication and soft skills.
- To enhance students' communication, interpersonal, and presentation skills.
- To prepare students for academic and professional environments through effective communication.

Report

The Department of English organized a Bridge Course session titled "Beyond the Textbook: The Art of Communication" for first-year FYUG students on 13 July 2026. The session was handled by Ms. Sheeba S., Communication and Soft Skills Trainer. The resource person highlighted the importance of communication, active listening, confidence, empathy, and teamwork through interactive discussions and practical examples. The session concluded with an interactive question-and-answer session. 201 students benefited from the programme. Dr. Priyanka M.C. was the faculty Co-ordinator and Sreya M. was the student Co-ordinator.

Outcomes

- Students understood the significance of effective communication in academic and professional contexts.
- Students gained awareness of essential soft skills required for personal and career development.
- Students were encouraged to improve their confidence, interpersonal skills, and teamwork.
- The session enhanced students' participation and engagement through interactive learning.
