REPORT ON COMMUNICATIVE ENGLISH SESSION

- Date: 08/07/2026
- Topic: Communicative English Session
- Resource Person: Ms. Rema Devi
College: Mercy College, Palakkad
- Department: BCA

The Department of BCA, Mercy College, Palakkad, organized a Communicative English Session on 08 July 2026 with the objective of enhancing students' English communication skills. The session was led by Ms. Rema Devi, who shared practical techniques to improve speaking, listening, reading, and writing abilities.

The resource person emphasized the importance of effective communication in academic, professional, and everyday life. She encouraged students to build confidence while speaking in English, improve their vocabulary, and practice correct pronunciation and grammar. Various interactive activities, including group discussions, role-plays, and communication exercises, were conducted to help students apply the concepts in real-life situations.

The session was engaging and informative, allowing students to participate actively and clarify their doubts. Ms. Rema Devi also provided valuable tips for improving fluency, overcoming stage fear, and preparing for interviews and workplace communication.

The program concluded with an interactive question-and-answer session, followed by a vote of thanks. Overall, the Communicative English Session was highly beneficial, helping students recognize the importance of effective communication and motivating them to continue improving their English language skills for academic and career success.
