Report on "SAY NO TO DRUGS" AWARENESS PROGRAMME & DRAMA "CHOORAL"

Organized by Anti-Drug and Anti Ragging Cell, Mercy College, Palakkad

The Anti Drug Cell of Mercy College, Palakkad organized an Awareness Programme "SAY NO TO DRUGS" on 25th September 2025 at the College Auditorium with the aim of sensitizing students against the menace of drug abuse. The programme started with a prayer. Dr. Ambily Jacob K., Secretary, Anti Drug Cell welcomed the gathering. Dr. Sr. N. M. Louly, Principal, Mercy College, Palakkad delivered the presidential address and stressed the pivotal role of youth in building a drug-free Kerala. The programme was inaugurated by Ms. Asha Sharma, IPS, Assistant Superintendent of Police, Palakkad. She spoke about the alarming spread of drugs among students, its psychological and legal consequences, and the need for early reporting and awareness. Sri. Sasi V. P., Janamaithri CRO & Assistant Sub Inspector, Town South Police Station, Palakkad* offered felicitation. He explained the activities of Janamaithri Police in curbing drug trafficking and urged students to be the eyes and ears of the society. After the formal inaugural session, the highlight of the day was the staging of the powerful drama "CHOORAL" organized by Palakkad Nadakapura. The drama is written and directed by the renowned artist Sri. Cheramangalam Chamunni. "Chooral" portrayed how the drug mafia traps innocent youth and slowly destroys families, dreams and society.
