OLDAGE HOME VISIT

On 6th December 2023, the final-year B.Sc. Physics batch, comprising 30 students, along with their class tutor, Dr. Sr. Jessy Mathew, visited Mercy Home. The home houses 15 elderly inmates, all above the age of seventy. During the visit, they interacted with the residents, sharing conversations filled with love and warmth. They sang for them, and some of the students even danced with the mothers there, bringing smiles to their faces. The residents opened their hearts to, sharing their personal stories and moments of sadness. The dedication and care shown by the staff at the home were truly inspiring, leaving a lasting impression on the student. As a gesture of love and kindness, they celebrated the day by cutting a cake and distributing daily essentials to the residents. The head of Mercy Home expressed heartfelt gratitude and joy on this occasion, making the students feel deeply appreciated. The experience was immensely meaningful for the students and it imparted a life-changing lesson in empathy and compassion. The student coordinator was Ms Anjali V M
