REPORT

MANUSCRIPT MAGAZINE RELEASED(MALAYALAM): DATED: 25 MARCH 2025

The Department of Languages (Malayalam), Mercy College, Palakkad, released a Malayalam manuscript magazine titled "OruCherupunchiri" on 25th March 2025, as a tribute to renowned writer M.T. Vasudevan Nair. The magazine, which featured students' creative works, including poems, short stories, essays, and illustrations, was formally released by Dr Sr Jorry TF, Principal, Mercy College, Palakkad. As part of the tribute, students reviewed and analyzed M.T. Vasudevan Nair's literary and cinematic contributions, offering critical insights into his storytelling and filmmaking. Additionally, students created paintings of M.T. Vasudevan Nair, further expressing their admiration for his legacy. The event successfully encouraged literary appreciation and artistic engagement, celebrating one of Kerala's greatest storytellers.

Objectives :-

- *To pay tribute to M.T. Vasudevan Nair, honoring his immense contributions to Malayalam literature.
- *To encourage students' creative writing skills by providing a platform for their literary expressions.
- *To promote a deeper appreciation for Malayalam literature and its cultural significance.
- *To inspire young writers to engage with storytelling, poetry, and essays in their mother tongue.
- *To nurture a literary culture within the college and foster discussions on influential literary figures.
