REPORT

MANUSCRIPT MAGAZINE RELEASED(SANSKRIT): DATED: 25 MARCH 2025

The Department of Languages (Sanskrit), Mercy College, Palakkad, released a Manuscript magazine in Sanskrit titled "Prajna" on 25th March 2025, showcasing students' creative expressions in the Sanskrit language. The magazine featured poems, essays, short stories, and other literary works of students. It was formally released by Dr. Sr. Jorry T.F, Principal, Mercy College, Palakkad. In addition to their original writings, students reviewed and analyzed various classical Sanskrit literary works, offering critical insights into the richness of Sanskrit literature. The release of "Prajna" served as a significant initiative to promote Sanskrit language and literature, encouraging students to explore and contribute to its vast literary heritage.

Objectives:-

- *To promote and preserve the Sanskrit language by encouraging students to write creatively in Sanskrit.
- *To provide a platform for students to showcase their literary talents through poems, essays, short stories, and other creative works.
- *To enhance critical thinking and analytical skills by encouraging students to review and analyze classical Sanskrit literature.
- *To cultivate an appreciation for Sanskrit literature and its cultural significance among students.
- *To inspire young scholars to engage in Sanskrit literary traditions and contribute to its continued growth.
