REPORT

The Department of Language (Sanskrit), mercy college, Palakkad organized a vibrant celebration of Sanskrit day to honor the profound influence of Sanskrit on Indian culture, philosophy and knowledge systems. The event sought to highlight the linguistic and literary richness of Sanskrit while inspiring students to explore the timeless legacy. A quiz competition on Sanskrit literature was conducted as part of the celebration to engage students and foster their interest in this classical language. The quiz focused on the renowned works of Sanskrit literature such as Kalidasa's and Bhasa's works. The competition was designed to test participant's knowledge while also encouraging them to delve deeper into Sanskrit rich literary heritage.

Aim of the program: -

- To celebrate Sanskrit legacy.
- Promote awareness about the linguistic, literary and cultural significance of Sanskrit as the foundation of India's intellectual and spiritual heritage.
- To highlight the importance of preserving Sanskrit as a vital part of Indian's cultural and historical identity.
- To encourage active participation from students through events like quizzes and competitions, making the celebration both educational and engaging.
