REPORT

The Department of Language (Hindi) celebrated Hindi Fortnight with various activities to highlight the importance of the Hindi Language as a unifying medium of communication in India. As part of the celebration, one day seminar organized on the topic "Hindi as a link Language" featuring a keynote address by Dr S.L. Sindhu, Associate Professor, Govt. Victoria College, Palakkad. Dr S.L. Sindhu's speech encompassed acceptance of the historical evolution of Hindi and its recognition as the official language of India and its acceptance as a means of communication across diverse linguistic regions. She also explored Hindi's contributions to administration, media, education and cultural exchange, portraying it as a unifying force in a multilingual nation.

Aim of the program: -

- To deepen students' understanding of Hindi as a unifying Language.
- To inspire students to explore and appreciate the richness and cultural heritage of Hindi.
- To motivate students to actively use Hindi in their communication.
- To promote National unity through Language.
