REPORT

The Department of Language (Hindi), Mercy college, Palakkad celebrated World Hindi Day with great enthusiasm and dedication to promoting the Hindi Language. As part of the celebration, a one-day seminar was organized on the topic “The role of Transition in Life Situations”. The key note address was delivered by Dr. Balasubramanian, Associate Professor, Department of Hindi, Govt. Victoria College, Palakkad. He explored the role of translation in life situations, highlighting how translation serves as a bridge in breaking down highlighting barriers in our globalized world. He discussed how translation is not just a linguistic process but a cultural and intellectual endeavor that enables the exchange of ideas, values and perspectives across different societies. A significant moment of the event was the release of the manuscript magazine titled “AALOK-2024” which showcases the literary and creative works of students. The magazine was formally released by the Principal Dr Sr Jorry T.F. An intercollegiate Quiz competition focused on Hindi Language and Literature was also conducted as part of the celebration.

Aims of the Program: -

- Promote Awareness of Hindi as a Global Language.
- Highlight the Importance of translation.
- Encourage Literary and Creative Engagement.
- Foster Academic and Cultural Collaboration.
