"Sanskrit Language Promotional Programme--Sanskrit Reading Habits in the digital Era :Challenges and possibilities." On 20-06-2025

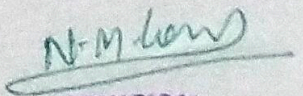

As a part of the reading week celebration, the department of Languages (Malayalam, Hindi & Sanskrit) organized a seminar on 20th June 2025. The chief guest, Dr. Suma Parappattoli, HoD & Associate Professor in Sanskrit, Govt. Victoria College, Palakkad delivered an insightful address on the topic: "Sanskrit Reading Habits in digital era : Challenges and Possibilities". The session was highly informative and thought provoking. Around 125 students actively participated and benefited the programme.

Outcome of the Seminar:

The seminar, General Motivational Speech, (NAPE) created awareness about the importance of cultivating reading habits amidst the distractions of the digital era. The seminar focused on the development and the digitization of Sanskrit manuscripts and classical texts.

Students gained deeper insights into the evolving nature of reading. Students acquired insights into how digitalized texts facilitate in-depth study, comparative analysis, and efficient linguistic research. The seminar increases awareness of current trends and innovations in Sanskrit language studies.
